DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-2 and 4-7 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 6-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Shintani et al. "Shintani" (U.S. 6,661,472).

Regarding Claim 6, Shintani discloses a method for channel selection, the method comprising the acts of: decoding a broadcasting signal that corresponds to a main channel (Col. 4, lines 24-43).

Shintani teaches, setting a main channel selection to a main channel corresponding to the currently decoded main channel in response to receipt of an instruction corresponding to a predetermined operating key (Col. 4, lines 44-53).

Shintani discloses a user will first enter a main channel number followed by a delimiter key or "predetermined operating key" in order to facilitate setting the main channel number.

Shintani teaches, setting a sub channel selection in response to receipt of an instruction corresponding to a numerical value (Col. 4, lines 53-56).

Shintani teaches, decoding a broadcasting signal corresponding to the set main and sub channel selections (Col. 5, lines 40-49).

As for Claim 7, Shintani teaches, wherein when an instruction corresponding to a numerical value is received prior to receipt of the instruction corresponding to the predetermined operating key, the method comprises the acts of: setting the main channel selection to a main channel corresponding to the numerical value received prior to receipt of the instruction corresponding to the predetermined operating key (Col. 4, lines 44-53 and Col. 5, lines 1-18).

Shintani teaches, setting the sub channel selection in response to the received instruction corresponding to a numerical value (Col. 4, lines 53-56 and Col. 5, lines 30-39).

Shintani teaches, decoding a broadcasting signal corresponding to the set main and sub channel selections (Col. 5, lines 40-49).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-2 and 4-5 are allowed.

Note to Applicant

5. Art Units 2611, 2614 and 2617 have changed to 2623. Please make sure all future correspondence indicate the new designation 2623.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
